

Bojo Tools

Body Panel Support Repair Tools

Our wide pry tools are also supplied in our strongest material allowing concentrated prying action where space is limited between panels.

Essential for body-shop and restoration workshops, but in particular offers an unmatched range of solutions for repairs and assembly in alloy and composite materials.

Rounded edges reduce chance of damage to modern thin wall body panels.

Three material hardness to choose from.

Split panel safely for applying bonding agent.

Tools offer an unmatched range of solutions for repairs and assembly in alloy and composite materials. Covers most Auto Body Shop panel support repair operations.